AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th of July, 1796,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that in consequence of the Progress of the French Arms in the Territories of the Grand Duke of Tuscany, the Payment of Bills of Exchange, drawn or negotiated in the Town of Leghorn, may be deemed unlawful, by virtue of the Provisions contained in an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for preventing Money or Effects in the Hands of His Majesty's Subjects, belonging to or disposeable by Persons resident in France, being applied to the Use of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France; and for preserving the Property thereof for the Benefit of the individual Owners thereof;" and in an Act passed in the same Session, intituled, "An Act for more effectually preserving Money or Effects in the Hands of His Majesty's Subjects, belonging to or disposeable by Persons resident in France, for the Benefit of the individual Owners thereof;" unless His Majesty shall licence the Payment of such Bills, in pursuance of the Powers given by the said several Acts; His Majesty, taking the same into His Royal Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, That it shall be lawful for any Person residing or being in Great Britain to pay any Bill drawn or indorsed in the said Town of Leghorn, and sent from thence on or before the Day on which the Armies of France entered the said Town of Leghorn; provided such Bill shall have been made payable at no greater Distance of Time than Ufance of Three Months from the Date thereof, or Three Months from Sight thereof; provided also that all and every Person and Persons, who shall take the Benefit of such Licence hereby granted, shall so take the same, upon Condition, that in case of any Proceeding, Criminal or Civil, under the Provisions of the said Acts of Parliament, or either of them, for any Thing alledged to have been done contrary thereto, any Question shall arise, whether the Thing so done was authorized by the Licence hereby given, the Proof that such Thing was done, under the particular Circumstances, and according to the special Terms and Conditions required by this Order, shall lie on the Persons claiming the Benefit of such Licence.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th of July, 1796,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, That an Embargo be forthwith laid upon all Ships and Vessels, now the within Ports of this Kingdom, or which shall hereafter come into any of the said Ports, laden with any Goods or Merchandize taken on Board in this Kingdom,

[Price Nine-pence.]

Kingdom, which are or may be bound to any of the Ports in the Territories of the Grand Duke of Tuscany, or in the Dominions of the Ecclesiastical State; and that the said Embargo do continue upon all such Ships and Vessels until the further Order of this Board. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's House, the 29th of July, 1796.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by his said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, 1793, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of August next; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirty-first Day of August next to the Thirty-first Day of October following: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Admiralty-Office, August 6, 1796.

Copy of a Letter from Vice Admiral Kingsmill, Commandant in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Cork, to Mr. Nepean, dated L'Engageant, Cork Harbour, July 31, 1796.

S I R,

PLEASE to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's Ships Cerberus and Sea-Horse arrived here Yesterday Afternoon: During their Cruise they captured a French Privateer Cutter, called the Calvados, mounting Six Guns, Ten Swivels, and Thirty-eight Men, which had been out Ten Days from Brett, but not made any Prize, and they sent her to Plymouth.

I have the Honor to be,

S I R,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

R. KINGSMILL.

Whitehall, July 26, 1796.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Friday Evening the 8th Instant, the Dwelling-House of Sydenham Teast, Esq; situate at Lawrence Weston in the County of Gloucester, was attempted to be entered by a Party of Men, who had secreted themselves in the Shrubbery next the Lane leading to Lawrence Weston; that on Wednesday Afternoon, about Four o'Clock, some Person or Persons entered the Garden, with a View to secrete themselves, but being discovered made a precipitate Retreat; that upon the same Night, about Eleven o'Clock, an Attempt was made by several Persons to burst into the Back Door, but finding that they were resisted from within, they desisted; that on Thursday Evening, about Two o'Clock, One of the Family was fired at in the Garden; and that on Saturday Morning, about Two o'Clock, an Attempt was again made to break through the Parlour Window of the said House.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the several daring Outrages above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person or Persons who first fired, or instigated them to commit the aforesaid Outrages) who shall discover his, her or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted) to be paid, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by

Sydenham Teast, Esq;

of Lawrence Weston, in the County of Gloucester.

Whitehall, August 6, 1796.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the Warehouse belonging to the Custom House at Aldeburgh, otherwise called Aldebro, was, on the Night of the 12th, or early in the Morning of the 13th of July last, feloniously broke open and robbed of Fourteen Bales of Bandannoe and Silk Handkerchiefs by certain Persons unknown, who are supposed to have entered the said Warehouse by forcing the Locks thereof with an Iron Crow, and to have carried off the said Goods;

Goods in a Cart, brought with them for that Purpose, with which they appear to have crossed the Common adjoining to a Field at the Back of the said Warehouse, and to have passed through some Rails sown asunder, near the Turnpike Gate, into the London Road, out of which they soon afterwards turned, and are supposed to have taken either the Yoxford or the Yarmouth Road.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony and Robbery abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of them who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by the Receiver-General of the Customs.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,

AT a Court of Chancery, held at the Chancellor's House in the City of New York, the Twentieth Day of February, in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-six,

The Hon. Robert R. Livingston, Esq; Chancellor.

John Oakes Hardy versus William Seton and Robert N. Auchmuty, Executors of the last Will and Testament of Peter Middleton, deceased.

THE Defendants having been directed by the Decree made and pronounced in this Cause on the Sixteenth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-three, to account with a Master for Four Fifths of the Personal Estate of Peter Middleton, deceased, bequeathed by his Will to his Daughter Susan Margaret Middleton, and lately the Wife of the Complainant, after the Payment of the just Debts of the said Peter Middleton, Legacies, Funeral Charges, and the Costs of this Suit; and the Defendants having also been directed by the said Decree to pay to the Complainant the Balance of the said Four Fifths of the said Personal Estate on the Complainant's indemnifying the Defendants against Debts, Legacies and future Demands, by such Security as, in case of Disagreement, a Master should approve of; and it being now represented to the Court, that no Demands have been exhibited to the Defendants, by or on Behalf of any Person or Persons whomsoever, touching any Part of the Personal Estate of the said Peter Middleton, since the making and pronouncing of the said Decree, and that the Balance of the said Four Fifths of the said Personal Estate still remains in the Hands of the Defendants: It is therefore ordered by the Court, that the said Balance be paid by the Defendants to the Complainant, without his giving the Security above mentioned, unless Cause be shewn to the contrary on or before the Twentieth Day of February next ensuing the Date hereof: And it is further ordered by the Court, that a Copy of this Order be published in Two of the Public Newspapers printed in the State of New York, once in each Week, for the Space of Six Months; and that a Copy thereof be also published in one of the Public Newspapers printed in the City of London, once in each Week, for the Space of Six Months before the said Twentieth Day of February next.

Extract from the Minutes,

PETER R. LIVINGSTON, Register.

King's Sedgmoor Drainage, Somerset.

THE Commissioners acting under and in Execution of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled, an Act for draining and dividing a certain Moor or Tract of waste Land called King's Sedgmoor in the County of Somerset, do hereby give Notice, that having, in their Judgment, completed and perfected the Drainage and Division of the said Moor; all the Works, Engines, Drains and Ditches, made and done by the said Commissioners, in Execution of the Power vested in them, will, from henceforth be (according to the said Act) under the sole Care, Management and Direction of the Commissioners of Sewers for the County of Somerset. Dated August 13, 1796.

IN pursuance of a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing Date the 17th Day of June last, made in a Cause wherein Hannah Rigge and another are Plaintiffs, and Jeremy Baker, Esq; and others are Defendants, the Creditors of John Wilcock, late of Thornton in the County of York, Esq; deceased, are forthwith to come in and prove their Debts before John Simeon, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing Date the 17th Day of June last, made in a Cause wherein Hannah Rigge and another are Plaintiffs, and Jeremy Baker, Esq; and others are Defendants, the Creditors of Thomas Rigge, formerly of Clifton in the County of Gloucester, but late of Gray's-Inn and Kensington in the County of Middlesex, Doctor of Physic, deceased, are forthwith to come in and prove their Debts before John Simeon, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Dawkins against Gale, the Creditors of William Gale, late of Grafton-Street, Piccadilly, in the County of Middlesex, Esq; deceased, are, on or before the 7th Day of November next, to come in and prove their Debts before William Graves, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.
